

As each thing in the Creation plays its part truly and honourably, so religion is our own devotional service, offered as a return back into life, by being decent human beings and doing the best that we can.

