

As the flower is drawn towards the sun for the higher sustenance of the plant, so our minds can find,
through contemplation of Creation and the Universe, the ideals and truths that nourish the soul and inspire our development and growth.