

As freedom of choice is granted to us through the design of the human faculty, so the process and act of choosing, through selection, is a major aspect of human purpose.

The sign that our choices are sound, is that they resonate harmoniously with our deep spirit and soul feelings, understanding and conscience.

The ongoing Universal Creation calls upon each of us to play a part, true to our natural design, respecting of the rules of life, and to do no harm.